SECTION B: PRIVACY ACT

- The information about you on this form is collected to determine your eligibility for an immigration visa or permit and may also be used to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters. This information may also be used to determine your entitlement to board a flight to come to or return to New Zealand.
- Your personal information will not be shared with airline check-in agents; however a boarding message will be returned to the airline check-in agent based on information you have supplied on this form.
- The main recipient of the information is Immigration New Zealand, a service of the Department of Labour but it may also be shared with other Government agencies which are entitled to this information under applicable legislation, or with other agencies in accordance with an authority in the form.
- Our address is PO Box 3705, Wellington, New Zealand, but please send your application to the nearest appropriate Immigration New Zealand branch office or New Zealand Embassy or High Commission.
- The collection of the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 1987 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. The supply of the information is voluntary, but if you do not supply it then your application is likely to be declined.
- You will, if you come to New Zealand, have a right to see the information about you held by INZ and to ask for any of it to be corrected if you think that is necessary.
